March 26, 1946

Dear Mr. Manley:

Owing to the fact that it is important that I be in Atlantic City on Friday March 29, I find it more convenient to meet you as previously arranged at 824 Kaighn St in Camden at 9 o'clock. This was a sudden eventuality and had I known would have held to the original plan. I hope that it will not inconvenience you any and will meet you on the 30th of March at the mentioned time and place.

Yours truly

Maxwell Manning

The earliest train from Atlantic City is 7:15 and gets into Camden at 8:50.
